Quirky, roomy and character-filled, this single-storey weatherboard family home is just made for family living and fun with friends. Its loving long-term owners have made sure of that, and now you get to enjoy the benefits.

Its central focus is its enormous, radiant family/dining/entertaining room which is versatile, large and remarkable because of its sheer utility. Sitting on a generous and attractively established block of Seven Hills real estate, this family residence is full of personality touches from the cast-iron pot-bellied stove, wood heaters and internal archways to its raked ceiling in the feature room.

Outside, the open, paved space leading out from the family room has even more entertainment potential and easily lends itself to being covered in. This great home presents so many possibilities, even updating it will be a sheer
