First-homers or investors, this lovely property has everything you want, now and for the future. As a family home, it has all the features and conveniences, and a peaceful street situation. Its excellent location close to transport, parks and schools and near the Kings Langley border will ensure future profitability. Economical yet sizeable spaces have amenities enough for the busy everyday family traffic. The private areas are roomy and the living areas easy-flowing and friendly. Covered parking for three cars, zones for everyone, a workshop and shed, both attached to the garage, a large indoor-outdoor rumpus area with spa combined with a cosy, delightful backyard that is a peaceful haven during the week and an entertainer's delight come the weekend - all make this a charming, accommodating family home.
