This brick double-storey delight is a family extravaganza. The private areas are separate and accommodating, the living areas are easy-flowing, entertaining is a true delight, the interiors offer the versatility any family or extended family desires, including the possibility of a fifth bedroom, and the attractively established, level block is cosy, private and child and pet friendly. As it is, the home will please the handyman, the homebody, the host, the student and the chef, but it even has potential for more! This is a home that is easy on the eye, functional and friendly, situated in a welcoming part of the world, a stroll to welcoming parklands and surrounded by hospitable neighbours.
