This attractive cottage has so much to offer your family. Affectionately updated by its owners, it awaits its new occupants with many benefits and so many possibilities for even more! The character-filled, family-friendly zones and the private areas offer easeful, flowing spaces, the home is adorned with high ceilings for creative use of great wall space, and the delightful covered deck even opens out from the kitchen via a servery, giving you and your guests a delightful indoor-outdoor hosting experience. The nice-sized, attractively established block is large enough to accommodate any future project such as a granny flat (STCA), sits quietly in a peaceful cul-de-sac and enjoys great proximity to the best amenities and schools the area has to offer. Families, single people with vision, or young couples seeking to enter the market - this is the sort of home that will provide you with fond family memories.
