Sitting on a prime serving of Kings Langley real estate in a lovely tree-lined street and a friendly neighbourhood, this two-level brick family home is resourceful and welcoming. Easily able to accommodate family and extended family, its bedrooms are conveniently distributed between upstairs and downstairs, and its living spaces are generous and flow seamlessly. There are amenities enough to make the weekdays move along easily, and great entertaining options including an upstairs balcony, a covered outdoor entertaining space and a rumpus room with size enough for all indoor activities. The handyman has a huge space all to himself and the chef will enjoy the roomy kitchen. Throw in easy accessibility to transport and all amenities and you have a great place to live.
