Tastefully and imaginatively renovated inside and out, this pretty, versatile cottage-style home is the perfect entrée into the market for first-homers, singles or young couples, or simply a great place for the family to settle, in a location that is extra-convenient. Uncomplicated and economical, its spaces have been creatively developed so that the interiors and exteriors work together to provide comfortable living spaces and delightful hosting. The appointments are all elegant and modern, and for the imaginative owner, there's even potential for more! This is a happy home that is simple yet sophisticated, cosy yet surprisingly roomy, welcoming and resourceful - made for great memories.
