Impeccably renewed inside and out, this versatile and welcoming family home will serve your family brilliantly, no matter their preferred lifestyle. The yards are established, spacious and neat, the handyman will be delighted with the large workshop - which is easily converted into accommodation - the student or home-based worker has a study/office, and the happy host will love the wide, well-appointed kitchen, the vast covered front veranda and the open entertainer's deck at the rear, which even lends itself to a simple covering. The busy weekdays are easily accommodated. This is an uncomplicated, friendly family abode, just made for great memories, and it even offers room for more possibilities!
