Your family will love the cosy embrace of this neat, experienced, established brick family home. It has served its owners brilliantly and is ready to do it all again! It boasts an attractive and welcoming street presence, sits on a good serving of land, and internally, its bedrooms are large and accommodating and the living areas are varied, comfortable, full of natural light and configured to make communal living and mingling a real delight! The well-placed kitchen is designed for seamless socialising, and the dining area opens out via wide stacker doors to your extensive, covered and well appointed alfresco dining area, for a marvellous indoor-outdoor hosting experience. The icing on this attractive cake is a fantastic location.
