The work has been done - just move in and enjoy the tasteful appointments, the easy-flowing, uncomplicated and family-friendly layout and the generous, 765 m2 block of neat, attractively established land that gives you possibilities for even more. If you wish to add or extend, you have a comfortable home for the family to go about their busy lives while you're at it. The beautiful front and back yards have plenty of space for the kids and pets, and the rear yard is large enough for a granny flay or a pool. Developers or investors will love the elevated position, suitable for a lovely split-level home with views. First-homers will enjoy the comfort as they move in and get on with their new lives.

Situated on the high side of a nice street on the border of Kings Langley, and offering great views, this cosy and
