Sitting on an attractively established block of land in an extra-convenient location, this is simply a good old accommodating Aussie brick home with something for everyone. Its cosy, yet spacious, unpretentious yet well-appointed. The internal spaces are uncomplicated, family-friendly, embracing and easy-going, and come the weekend the guests and family will love the indoor-outdoor experience provided by the large covered outdoor area, opening out from the living space. Your family will settle into its warm embrace immediately, and if there's any updating or adding to do, you have a fine family home to accommodate you and the family as you go about achieving your vision. Just settle in and enjoy!
