

217 Vardys Road Blacktown NSW

3  1  3

Sitting on a generous, level and established serving of premium Blacktown real estate, close to schools, shops and transport, and set well back from the road, it's a great investment for your family and for the future. It has everything to make the everyday living convenient for the busy family, and a lovely pool area and open paved space for entertaining - and it has plenty of possibilities for more, including a covered alfresco space to complement the pool area. The kids and pets get to explore the expanses of a big yard! With a position like this, this great property will attract wide interest from first-homers, investors and young families.
